Your Pre-K child will:

- Learn that the Bible is God’s Word and that God wants us to read and learn from it daily.
- Practice responding to curriculum by sharing answers, individual thoughts and comments in large and small groups.
- Continue practicing letter identification, phonemic awareness, and other reading readiness skills.
- Count objects to solve simple addition and subtraction problems.
- Identify patterns and relationships in order to make predications in science experiments.
- Use a variety of methods to solve peer conflict and express emotions appropriately.
- Participate in weekly gym and music classes to develop motor skills, coordination, and rhythm.
